Convention 2017 “ I Have a Dream”

May 21–23, 2017

Challenge, Banner, and Exhibit Form

Convention 2017 Exhibition Opportunities

Convention 2017 will have three opportunities for members, as chapters or individuals, to showcase their needlework accomplishments. All designs must be free of copyright restrictions, or be accompanied by written permission from the creator of the design/ image/pattern.

Work is to be brought to the Convention 2017 Registration Desk on Saturday evening, May 20th by the artist, or designated Convention attendee. Work may only be shipped to the Convention Exhibits Committee prior to Convention if you have no one who can bring it personally. Please complete and submit the appropriate section(s) of the Exhibition Registration Form below.

Exhibitions will be open for viewing throughout the two days of Convention. Following take-down after Monday evening’s dinner, work will be available for pick-up in the Hospitality Room from 9:00 – 10:00 pm, or between 8:00 and 9:00 am Tuesday, May 23, 2017.

The three exhibition categories for Convention 2017 are: 1) Chapter Banners; 2) I Have a Dream Challenge; and 3) Individual or Chapter Needlework Projects. Please note that all work submitted is for exhibition rather than competition.

Please complete and submit this page for any one or all of this year’s three exhibition opportunities, sending the form so that it is received no later than April 20, 2017, to assist our planning. Each member may enter one Challenge submission and up to two Individual Needlework Projects.

Mail this completed form to: Jackie Granath, 1681 Wellshire Lane, Dunwoody, GA 30338 USA. You may scan and send the form, or e-mail the required information to her at: j-granath@comcast.net For questions, contact Jackie: j-granath@comcast.net or call (770) 394-0541 (home) or (404) 664-6794 (cell phone).
